

Alex Adams Playwright and Actor

My plays have been produced in NYC, San Francisco, Los Angeles, London, San Rafael, Mill Valley, Nevada City and Princeton. Recently, I had public a reading at a Barnes and Noble, The American Renaissance Theater Company, Around The Block, Times Square Playwrights, Dramatist Guild and The Shetler Theater all in New York City.

Received a five thousand dollar grant from The Marion Davies Foundation in playwriting... won by Sam Shepard the previous year. I have also received awards in, Miami and Baltimore.

I studied playwriting under Obie winner, Maria Irene Fornes, Will Dunne, Ernest White, at San Francisco State, Danny Simon(Neil's brother) and through workshops at my theater group, The American Renaissance Theater Company now in its' fortieth year.

In San Francisco I had a radio show called, Looking For Laughs where I recorded live shows, did interviews and wrote plays from 30 seconds to 30 minutes and produced them with sound effects and music.
