

Eileen Roehm
AEA
(646)784-1286

Eileen Roehm pursued her passion for theatre and the art of acting starting at a young age and earned her MFA in Theatre Performance from Columbia University, Graduate School of the Arts. Her favorite roles are Maggie in After the Fall, The Wife in The Jewish Wife, Amanda Wingfield in The Glass Menagerie, Maria Cole in Thomas (an original play by Joseph Capone), Esmeralda in Camino Real, and Kristine Linde in A Doll's House. Eileen is privileged to have played many wonderful roles in original new plays by ARTC's writers.